

Central City Library - Frequently Asked Questions and Services

1. Inter-Library Loan (ILL) Service

Q: What if the library does not own a book or article I need?

A: You can submit an Inter-Library Loan (ILL) request. Central City Library collaborates with over 120 partner libraries nationwide. Digital articles are delivered via email within 24 to 48 hours. Physical books arrive at our Circulation Desk in 3 to 5 business days. The ILL service is free of charge for students, faculty, and research members.

2. Assistive Technology and Accessibility Services

Q: What accessibility accommodations are available in the library?

A: The library provides accessible computer workstations equipped with NVDA and JAWS screen reader software, ZoomText screen magnifiers, and height-adjustable ergonomic motorized desks on Floor 1. Braille printers are available in Room 108 upon request.

3. Group Study Room Reservations FAQ

Q: How do I book a group study room?

A: Rooms can be reserved up to 7 days in advance using the online Library Portal or the mobile application. Rooms are equipped with 4K HDMI monitors, whiteboards, and power outlets. Groups must check in within 15 minutes of their booking start time or the reservation will be automatically released.

4. Book Donations Policy

Q: Does the library accept book donations?

A: Yes! We accept gently used academic textbooks published within the last 5 years, classic literature, and local history materials. We do not accept outdated technology manuals, damaged books, or magazines. Donations can be dropped off at the Receiving Office on Floor 1.
